Ref.: AE, M/s Dhruv letter No. 1822 dated 03.07.2024 & 1610 dated 20.06.2024

Sir,

With reference to the subject matter and letter under reference, wherein CVs of Sh. Chandraveer and Sh. Suraj Kumar were submitted for the positions of Survey Engineer and Assistant Highway Engineer respectively, this office has examined their CVs & Documents. However, after thorough evaluation and assessment it has come to notice that the candidates proposed by your company for the aforementioned positions have not been found suitable for the roles.

Furthermore, the degrees of the candidates have been found to be fake, which was verified with the university.

Moreover, upon scrutiny of the documents submitted by the company/candidates, serious doubts have arisen regarding their authenticity with indications that certain documents may have been falsified.

As per Article 3 of consultancy agreement regarding Fake CV which is being reproduced as below; -

"If any case of fake/incorrect/inflated CV is found, it shall be dealt with very severely and would result in all possible penal action including blacklisting from future projects of National Highways Authority of India. This would also apply even when the consulting firm is not successful in getting the assignment. In case CV of a person is turned out to be fake/incorrect/inflated during the assignment, the consultancy firms will have to refund the salary and perks drawn including interest @12% per annum in respect of the person apart from other consequences. In addition to above, 10% of the salary and perks to be refunded shall be recovered from the Firm as penalty."

As a responsible entity entrusted with the task of ensuring the highest standards of professionalism and integrity in all our dealings, NHA takes such matters very seriously. The failure to provide a suitable candidate for the position and the submission of falsified documents not only reflect poorly on the credibility of your organization but also undermine the integrity of the recruitment process.

In view of the above, you are hereby directed to provide a satisfactory explanation within 7 days from the receipt of this notice, including clarification on the selection process followed by your organization and explanation regarding the discrepancies observed in the documents submitted by the candidate. Failure to respond within the stipulated time frame may compel NHAI to initiate appropriate action, which may include but is not limited to termination of the current contract or debarment from future tenders with NHAI.

The instant Notice is being issued without prejudice to Authority's right to claim damages and/or to realize any dues, losses and damages and/or to exercise any other right or remedy on account of Consultant's failure to comply with its obligations under the Consultancy Agreement, which may be available now or in future under the Consultancy Agreement or under the applicable laws or otherwise, as the case may be.

Yours faithfully,
